Name, title, and telephone number of the person completing this form:

Which organization(s) accredit your institution?

What benefits do you hope to receive from your membership in CORAL? What benefits do you bring to it?

In this section, please provide general information about your collections. Note materials of special value to a resource-sharing consortium (unique or special collections, for example).

1. Please describe any aspects of your library that appeal to students, faculty, and CORAL member libraries.
2. Please describe your primary patrons.
3. Please indicate the TexShare programs in which your library participates.
4. Attach a copy or provide a link to your borrowing policy.

5. What is your library's regular schedule (excluding holiday hours)?

6. Indicate any restrictions on access that would limit use by patrons affiliated with CORAL institutions.

7. Is the library willing to participate in CORAL Interlibrary Loan agreements, which include accepting requests by telephone or email, providing free photocopies in response to CORAL ILL requests, and lending monographs without charge? (CORAL Interlibrary Loan participants may include institutions that are not TexShare members.)

By signing this form you acknowledge that you:

- (a) will support CORAL activities through payment of dues, currently $210 annually.
- (b) have read and will abide by the bylaws of the Council of Research & Academic Libraries.
